

OMA and Volaris launch new Zacatecas-Oakland international route.

- Zacatecas International Airport now offers four international routes operated by Volaris.
- The launch event was attended by state authorities and representatives from OMA and Volaris, underscoring the importance of strategic partnerships.

Zacatecas, Zacatecas, July 4, 2025 – OMA, Volaris, and the Government of the State of Zacatecas today celebrated the launch of the new international Zacatecas-Oakland route at the Zacatecas Airport.

The inaugural ceremony took place at Zacatecas International Airport, with the attendance of key figures including Governor David Monreal Ávila, Secretary of Tourism Dr. Le Roy Barragán Ocampo, Secretary of Economy Dr. Jorge Miranda Castro, President of the Migrant Affairs Committee, Congresswoman María Dolores Trejo Calzada, OMA CEO Ricardo Dueñas, and representatives from Volaris.

This new route underscores OMA's commitment to enhance connectivity and driving regional development, aligning with VINCI Concessions' strategic vision for positive mobility and economic prosperity.

"At OMA, and in alignment with VINCI Airports' global strategy, we are dedicated to expand connectivity options and fostering a more connected and competitive Mexico," said Ricardo Dueñas, CEO of OMA.

The Zacatecas-Oakland route meets a significant market demand, facilitating access to a key U.S. destination and delivering substantial benefits for commerce, tourism, and cultural exchange.

This route exemplifies OMA's long-term vision to contribute to the economic and tourism development of Zacatecas by improving passenger flow and creating new business opportunities.

- Direct and convenient travel option for visiting family and friends.
- Strengthens Zacatecas' air connectivity and enhances regional accessibility.
- Supports business and tourism growth, fostering economic prosperity in the region.

OMA remains committed to investing in connectivity as a driver of regional development. Modern infrastructure, operational efficiency, and strategic partnerships are the pillars guiding our decisions.

The Zacatecas-Oakland route is a clear step forward. It enhances accessibility, creates economies of scale, and strengthens the national airport network with a long-term vision.
